III. Definition of fares

2. Travel schedule

The FestungsBahn funicular is operating year-round with the exception of maintenance periods. The resuming of the operation and the end of the operation are published on the homepage of Salzburg AG Tourismus [CORP.] The cars operate regularly every ten minutes, if needed also in shorter intervals. FestungsBahn funicular reserves the right to expand or restrict the published hours of operation.

3. Tickets/passes

3.1 Tickets are valid on the day of purchase for one ascent or one descent or one descent and one ascent.

Weekly and monthly passes are issued both at the lower station as well as at the summit station and they are valid for one week or one month.

3.2 The tickets/passes must be shown or handed over at any time upon request by the staff members of the train; if a ticket/pass cannot be presented during a check, then double the ticket price for one ascent has to be paid. The ticket/pass has to be handed over upon completion of the journey upon request.

3.3 For tickets/passes issued at the Moenchsberg Lift for one descent as well as the descent of a ticket/pass, which was not yet used for an ascent and descent, the descent can also be made with the FestungsBahn funicular on the date of issuance.

3.4 No refunds will be given for tickets/passes for an ascent and descent, which have only been partially used or lost, or for (partially) unused weekly and monthly passes.

3.5 No refunds will be given without exceptions for any tickets/passes and FestungsCARDS purchased through advance ticket sales, which have not (or only partially) been used during the validity period.

3.6 An exchange of tickets/passes purchased through advanced ticket sales and not used yet is basically possible within the framework of their validity –against a possible surcharge.

3.7 A ticket/pass is invalid if

- its contents were changed without authorization, or
- it cannot be checked for validity based on its condition, or
- if it does not match the fare conditions or has been used in violation of the fare rules, or
- it is only valid in conjunction with an identification card and the concerned identification card has not been presented or is invalid.

The staff members who are in charge of checking tickets/passes will confiscate invalid tickets/passes.
